

EFA 2014 GRIFFITH BY-ELECTION SCORECARD: HOW DO THE PARTIES STACK UP ON DIGITAL RIGHTS?

	SURVEILLANCE	NBN	COPYRIGHT	CENSORSHIP
	 Has not opposed data retention or PRISM surveillance program. Did support Senate surveillance inquiry.	 Supports NBN with Fibre To The Premises (FTTP).	 Unclear stance on fair use. Voted against transparency for TPP.	 Reluctantly abandoned mandatory ISP filtering policy. Took no action to reform use of s313 to block websites.
	 Has not ruled out data retention. Defended PRISM surveillance program.	 Supports NBN with Fibre To The Node (FTTN).	 Opposed to fair use. Voted against transparency for TPP.	 Opposes mandatory ISP filtering. Unclear stance on use of s313 to block websites.
	 Opposed to data retention. Opposes PRISM surveillance program.	 Supports NBN with Fibre To The Premises (FTTP).	 Supports fair use. Has called for greater transparency in TPP negotiations	 Opposes mandatory ISP filtering. Opposes use of s313 to block websites.
	 Opposed to data retention. Opposes PRISM surveillance program.	 Supports NBN with Fibre To The Premises (FTTP).	 Supports fair use. Has called for greater transparency in TPP negotiations	 Opposes mandatory ISP filtering. Opposes use of s313 to block websites.
	 Supports a Bill of Rights.	 Unclear stance on NBN	 Opposed to limits on ability to copy purchased items, favours lowering of copyright term to life +50 years..	 Opposed to any type of internet filter
	 No stance on data retention or government surveillance.	 Supports NBN but no stance re technology.	 No stance on copyright	 Supports mandatory ISP filtering. No stance on s313.